

Demand Response

An Easy Way to Boost Profits

Did you know that utility companies compensate businesses for reducing their energy consumption during times of peak demand? This strategic initiative referred to as Demand Response (DR), has the potential to generate significant profits, often reaching tens of thousands of dollars annually or more.

Enjoy a Partnership That Pays Off

NuEnergen sets itself apart from typical CSPs by proactively scheduling regular consultations to assess the efficacy of your plan and make timely adjustments as required. In addition to this exemplary customer service, NuEnergen offers Real-Time Metering, an advanced tool that empowers us to provide enhanced oversight of your energy expenditure, ensuring optimal cost management.

NuEnergen has successfully enlisted over 1,000 facilities to actively engage in Demand Response, enabling them to earn revenue through participation.

Collaborating with NuEnergen provides you instant access to a consistent revenue stream, without any upfront costs. NuEnergen excels in supporting customers nationwide with Demand Response solutions and is recognized as the top curtailment service provider in the New York City metro area.
